

GLOBAL STRATEGIC LITIGATION COUNCIL

ACCESS TO ASYLUM THROUGH A GENDER-SENSITIVE LENS: A REGIONAL DIALOGUE AND TRAINING ON LATIN AMERICA

WEDNESDAY 28 OCTOBER | 09:00-11:00 (CST) / 15:00-17:00 (UTC)

Training to enhance your advocacy and litigation skills when working with women claiming asylum in Latin America. This session will bring together practitioners with experience representing claimants seeking international protection across the region, to examine access to asylum through a gender-sensitive lens.

NATALIA CINTRA (TRAINER)

Senior Research Fellow in Race & Migration Politics at the Politics and International Relations Department at the University of Southampton. She is Principal Investigator of the British Academy-funded project 'Racial Politics of Forced Displacement in Latin America', and Co-Lead of the ESRC-Fapesp-funded project "The Contested Politics of Humanitarian Visas (Humanvisa)". She holds a PhD in Law from the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

NATASHA PÉREZ TÜMMLER (TRAINER)

Regional Litigator for the Americas at the Global Strategic Litigation Council. Natasha is a Costa Rican lawyer and holds a Master's in Law and Sustainability from Utrecht University in the Netherlands. Her work focuses on human rights litigation and strategic advocacy for people on the move.

LORENA CANO PADILLA (TRAINER)

Legal Clinic Coordinator at IMUMI. Master's degree in Human Rights from the Universidad Iberoamericana. Bachelor's degree in Law from the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM); and studies in Human Rights and Community Law at the Universidad Carlos III in Madrid. She coordinated the Center for Access to Justice at ITAM. She coordinated the legal department at Sin Fronteras, IAP. She is a senior attorney at the Legal Clinic for Refugees at the Universidad Iberoamericana in Mexico City. She served as director of Humane Repatriation at the National Institute of Migration.

FREE EVENT | RESERVATION REQUIRED